

The Scar Room

A field document on correction, memory, and the authority of the past. August 2026.

CENTRAL FINDING

Humane memory is not memory that never
changes.
It is memory whose
authority can change
without requiring
history to lie.

